National Unity Government
Ministry of Foreign Affairs
Statement (8/ 2025)
24 July 2025

Statement on the Current Military Tensions Between the Kingdom of Thailand and the Kingdom of Cambodia

1. As a member state of ASEAN, the National Unity Government expresses its deep concern over the escalating military tensions between the Kingdom of Thailand and the Kingdom of Cambodia, and respectfully urges both nations to seek a peaceful and diplomatic resolution at the earliest opportunity.
2. The National Unity Government expresses its deep concern for the safety and well-being of civilians in both countries, given that the ongoing hostilities have already resulted in civilian casualties.
3. The National Unity Government strongly urges all Myanmar nationals residing in, traveling through, or working in areas affected by the current military tensions to strictly follow emergency instructions and safety advisories issued by the relevant national security authorities of their host countries.
4. In light of the shared workplaces and communities among the peoples of Thailand, Cambodia and Myanmar, the National Unity Government strongly urges all Myanmar nationals to remain cautious and vigilant, and to refrain from making or sharing any content—especially on social media—that could further exacerbate the current situation.
